

Aloisio Campelo

Superintendent for Statistics,
Fundação Getulio Vargas

Aloisio Campelo Junior, Superintendent for Statistics of the Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV/IBRE), leads a team of 25+ economists. He also provides technical assistance to the Economic Cycle Dating Committee of Brazil (CODACE) and is a member of the FGV/IBRE´s short-term macroeconomic monitoring group. He has a masters degree in economics from FGV and a diploma in developmental economics from Queen Mary College.