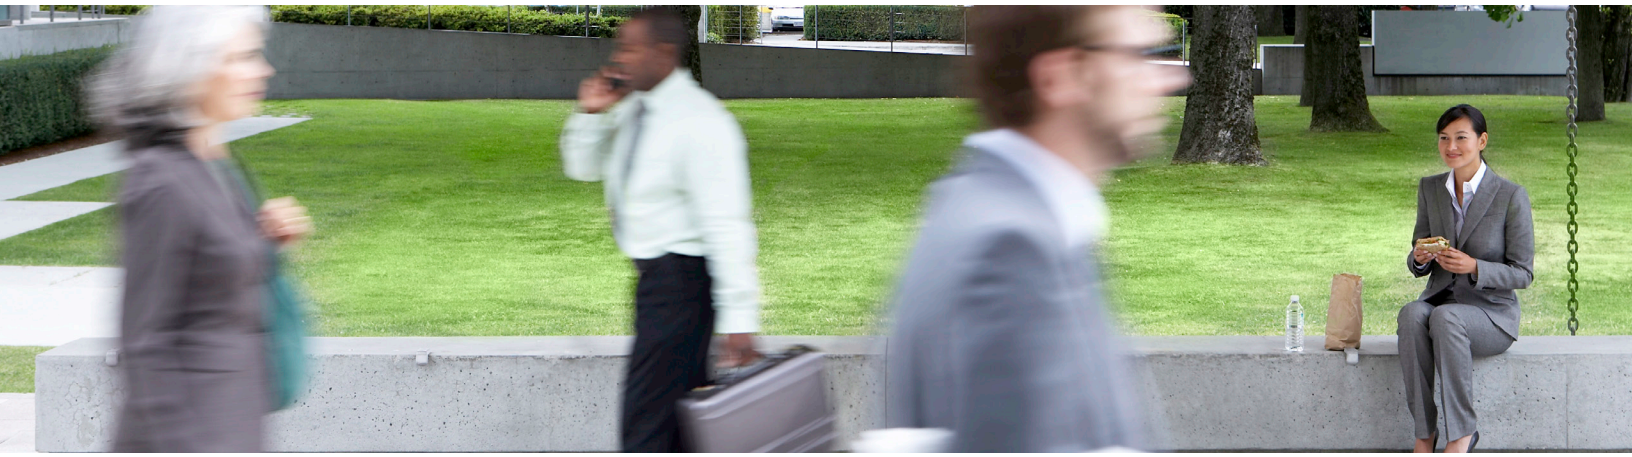
THE CONFERENCE BOARD
DIVERSITY & INCLUSION ACADEMY



Accelerate your thinking. Expand your leadership. Elevate your career.

Diversity is no longer simply the right thing to do; globalization and ethnic shifts mean that diversity can drive innovation, and inclusion can boost the bottom line. The Conference Board Diversity & Inclusion Academy helps diversity leaders increase their own and their firms' cultural intelligence to navigate in a world whose boundaries are increasingly blurred.

Using practitioner-identified competencies and the enterprise-wide insights of The Conference Board, participants will develop and refine their strategies with the help of their peers and seasoned diversity and inclusion executives.

Benefits of attending

Participants develop models and a personal action plan to implement on completion of the program. They also develop the skills to:

Assess D&I competencies

Learn how to integrate D&I in other functions

Understand D&I in the organizational context; strategic context and structure

Put in place effective D&I campaigns

Build ties with business partners

Become leaders in the field

Who should attend?

Professionals in their first year as chief diversity officer or regional head of D&I, business unit leaders with responsibility for diversity, HR, or talent management, and other leaders to whom diversity reports. Professionals designated to assume these roles may also apply.

Upcoming meetings in New York:

Academy Cohort B, 2014
September 15–17 & November 17–19
