

Guido Ditto

Internal Communications Lead
Coursera

Guido Ditto works with Coursera executives and teams to engage, inform, and inspire colleagues around the world. Since joining in 2019, he has optimized information sharing with a new intranet platform, helped employees stay connected during hypergrowth, and supported the company's transition to work from home. Previously, Guido led creative strategy at New York University, where he developed campaigns on behalf of the Vice Chancellor and NYU's Presidential Fellow.
