
Hani Khan

Content Marketing Manager
Simpplr

Hani Khan is a content marketing manager at Simpplr, a modern employee intranet software provider that helps companies engage their workforce by transforming employee communication. With years of communication and marketing experience, she is driven by discovering new technology and methods to engage within the digital workplace. Hani has worked with senior executives and brands on social media strategy and has a passion for storytelling to create a meaningful experience.