Access to Experts

Jennifer W. Allyn , Managing Director, Office of Diversity , PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

As an executive and thought leader promoting diversity initiatives, Jennifer Allyn is responsible for designing programs to retain, develop, and advance diverse professionals.

Ms. Allyn has been recognized as a subject matter expert on gender, GLBT and work/life challenges. She is a frequent public speaker and has been quoted in dozens of publications including The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, The Washington Post, CFO Magazine, ForbesWomen.com, and US News & World Report. She spearheaded the effort to enhance PwC's parental leave policy and launched Full Circle, a program designed to assist parents who want to "on-ramp" after taking an extended period of time off from work. She was also instrumental in designing and facilitating PwC's Diversity Leadership Forum in 2009, which brought together over 700 business executives to discuss the future of diversity in the current economy. PricewaterhouseCoopers has been recognized as a best-in-class employer by Catalyst, Working Mother Magazine, Diversity Inc, Out & Equal, and Fortune Magazine. Prior to joining PwC, Jennifer was a senior consultant at Catalyst where she advised a diverse group of Fortune 500 clients, among them PricewaterhouseCoope

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.