

Guy Jubb

Co-Council Director of the Corporate Governance Council
The Conference Board
Honorary Professor
University of Edinburgh

Guy Jubb is Co-Council Director for the Corporate Governance Council at The Conference Board. Guy's executive career has spanned accounting, merchant banking and fund management, latterly as Global Head of Governance & Stewardship at Standard Life Investments. A recognised leader, he has spoken at conferences around the world, and has written articles and reports for leading publications.

Guy is an Honorary Professor at the University of Edinburgh, an independent non-executive of Mazars LLP, serving on its Public Interest Committee and Audit Board, and a Director and former Chair of the European Corporate Governance Institute. He has served on and chaired numerous committees related to corporate governance and investor stewardship and as an advisor to the PCAOB, the US audit regulator, and Standard Life PLC.