Sandra Lester

Sandra Lester is Director of The Conference Board's European Council on Corporate Communications. She combines this role with that of Communications Senior Advisor for The Conference Board Europe, responsible for promotional publications, and editing the members' newsletters Board Europe and BoardIndia.

Sandra started her career in London with the UK Diplomatic Service (North America department), before moving to Brussels in 1978, where she worked as a public affairs and government relations consultant. In 1988, she joined the information section of the British Embassy in Brussels, editing a daily English-language review of the Belgian press. Sandra has been working for The Conference Board Europe since 1992.
