Special Committee Authorship , The Conference Board Committee on Corporate Political Spending

The Conference Board convened the Committee on Corporate Political Spending in April 2011 to educate and engage the corporate community on the complex issue of corporate political spending. The committee is co-chaired by Charles Grezlak, vice president, State Government Affairs & Policy, Merck & Co., and Dan Bross, senior director, Corporate Citizenship, Microsoft Corporation.

This report reflects a compilation, but not a consensus, of the committee members' views and does not necessarily reflect the views of the companies with which members are affiliated.
