

Access to Experts

Diane Piktialis , Research Working Group Leader

Diane Piktialis is a research working group leader at The Conference Board. She focuses on issues related to the aging and multigenerational workforce and cross-generational knowledge transfer.

Piktialis has 35 years of experience in product development and management. She was work-life product director and an expert on the aging workforce and corporate elder care at Ceridian Corporation. She is past director of policy and program development for Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Massachusetts and past assistant secretary for programs at the Massachusetts Executive Office of Elder Affairs. Piktialis is also past chair of the Business Forum on Aging of the American Society on Aging.

Piktialis has been a consultant to the Office of Technology Assessment and to the Veterans Administration. She has also been an officer in several professional associations and has sat on numerous boards of directors. She has been quoted frequently in the press and has appeared on the Today Show, Good Morning America, and PBS's Right on the Money, as well as on National Public Radio's On Point.

Piktialis holds master's and doctorate degrees in sociology from Boston University.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

