

Access to Experts

Jane Whitt Sellers , Partner , McGuireWoods

Ms. Sellers works with public and private companies on corporate finance matters, securities compliance, mergers and acquisitions and corporate governance. She represents issuers in a wide range of financing transactions including syndicated loan agreements and public and private offerings (including Rule 144A offerings) of debt and equity securities as well as hybrid securities, such as equity units, convertible notes, junior subordinated notes and trust preferred securities. Her experience also includes debt and equity self-tenders and exchange offers and consent solicitations for outstanding debt securities.

She regularly advises on 1934 Act reporting and annual meeting proxy statement matters, including shareholder proposals, proxy contests and executive compensation disclosures. She is on the firm's climate change team, advising on SEC disclosures and due diligence matters. Her mergers and acquisitions experience includes private stock and asset acquisitions and divestitures, as well as multibillion-dollar public company mergers.
