

Organization Chart Collection

“... excellent insight into the organization structure of American enterprise ... a good starting point to understand any company.”

LeRoy Raspa
Vice President
UNICOA

An insider's look at the structures of over 200 leading corporations in 15 major industries.

Available in digital and print formats

The Conference Board's Organization Chart Collection can give your company a competitive edge.

Organization Charts Help You

Analyze how competitors and potential competitors organize their companies.

Compare job titles, industry by industry.

Identify span of control, company by company or department by department.

Assess industry patterns.

Use organizational data in business presentations.

Design your own organization chart.

Review how companies in specific industries organize their top management teams and workforces at every level.

Facilitate placement decisions.

Make departments run more smoothly.

Sharpen your company's competitive edge.

“We use the charts to deal with strategy level questions. We also find them useful for benchmarking, competitive analysis, and for studies involving wrestling with major choices. We have saved every one we bought!”

Paul Teplitz
President
Research Boston

Exclusive Features

The Conference Board is the only source of this unique Collection, which gives you access to the actual organization charts of over 200 leading corporations, identified by company name, in 15 major industries. It is constantly being expanded and updated. See order pages for details.

Many charts include data on total sales and number of employees. (Names of individuals are not included.)

4 Ways to Order & Save

Save more than 70% when you purchase the Full Collection.

Save 10% when you buy a complete Industry Group. Select from the 15 industries listed on the order form.

Create your own chart collection. Check the box next to the companies you want on the order form.

Get special prices on highly detailed Functional Sub-Chart packets designed to help you restructure key departments and divisions such as marketing, finance, human resources and more. While not identified by company name or industry, these charts provide a wealth of difficult-to-obtain information.

Our Updating Service Keeps You Current

Receive all the latest charts as soon as they become available when you purchase the Updating Service. You'll get the most up-to-date charts sent to you automatically so your Collection is kept current, year after year.

Give Us Your Chart: Pay Less and Get More

If you contribute your company's organization chart to our Collection, you will receive the following three benefits:

You can purchase detailed sub-charts, exclusive to contributors to the Collection, depicting individual departments, divisions, and subsidiaries, identified by company name.

No minimum required when ordering corporate charts.

You can receive 50% off any one of our conferences or seminars.

Call Linette Waters at 212 339 0216 for more information about becoming a contributor to our Collection.

Free Bonuses

A specially designed binder comes with each hardcopy order so you can organize your collection. An alphabetical index is also included with all Full Collection chart orders.

Choose your FREE gift with every order over $300. Select either:

- The Conference Board report, Strategic Workforce Planning: Forecasting Human Capital Needs to Execute Business Strategy, a $1,295 value.
- A one-year subscription to The Conference Board Review, our magazine of current business reporting, commentary, thought, and analysis, a $59 value.
