

Access to Experts

Conrad C. Lautenbacher
Vice President, Science Programs
CSC

Retired Navy Vice Admiral Conrad C. Lautenbacher, Ph.D., joined CSC as the Vice President of Science Programs for the Applied Technology Group (ATG), and concurrently is the President of Antarctic Research Support (ARS), a joint venture of CSC and EG&G division of URS. He brings to CSC significant experience in managing one of the world's largest research and science support infrastructures, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA). As Under Secretary of Commerce for Oceans & Atmosphere and Administrator of for seven years, he directed an extensive review and reorganization of the NOAA corporate structure to meet the environmental challenges of the 21st century. He was president and CEO of the Consortium for Oceanographic Research and Education (CORE), now known as the Consortium for Ocean Leadership.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org