

Access to Experts

Michael Reardon

Supervisory Policy Advisor, The Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP)
U.S. Department of Labor

Michael Reardon directs ODEP's Employment Supports Policy Team, which addresses a wide range of issues effecting the employment of people with disabilities, including transportation, housing, assistive technology, personal assistance, and health care. He previously served as the Disability Program Manager for the Department of Transportation's Office of Civil Rights and as Policy Advisor for the Presidential Task Force on Employment of Adults with Disabilities. He moved to Washington, DC from Columbus, OH, where he was Director of the Ohio Developmental Disabilities Alliance, a state-level advocacy organization for people with disabilities. He has a Master in Public Policy degree from Ohio State University, and also attended the law school there.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org