Pat Ressa
Former SVP, Logistics
Consumer Foods

Over his career, Pat Ressa has been able to successfully find ways to leverage the power of an integrated supply chain to improve the bottom line in several companies. He has held several senior roles at Maple Leaf Foods, one of Canada's largest food companies, Curtice-Burns Foods (now known as Pinnacle Foods), a regional food processor in upstate New York, and Americold Logistics, a third party services provider. In his last role at Maple Leaf, Pat was the Senior Vice President of Logistics for Consumer Foods, a $3.8 billion food business. Among his responsibilities was the customer service and freight management for the $1 billion export segment.
