

Jared Berman

Partner
Meridian Compensation Partners

Jared Berman has 17+ years of experience in executive compensation consulting. Prior to joining Meridian, Jared was with Mercer for eight years as a Consultant and Principal within the executive compensation practice. He has experience consulting in a broad range of executive compensation matters that include executive and director compensation benchmarking, compensation strategies and pay philosophies, long-term incentive plan design, short-term incentive plan design, executive supplemental benefits, severance benefits, and change-in-control benefits. Jared has a proven capacity to help solve executive compensation issues and manage complex projects.

Jared currently works with publicly traded and privately held companies across a wide range of industries including: advertising, automotive, banks and financial services, hotels and resorts, manufacturing, payment processing, REITs, restaurants, retail, and steel.

In 2018, Jared was a featured speaker at both the Equilar Summit and Corporate Board Member conference. He is a frequent speaker at NASPP and WorldatWork regional chapter meetings. He is a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma Honor Society as well as the Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM) and WorldatWork. He is also a Certified Executive Compensation Professional as designated by WorldatWork.

Jared holds a B.S.B.A. in Finance from the Olin School of Business, Washington University, a M.B.A. in Finance and Human Resource Management from the Olin School of Business, Washington University and M.S.F. in Finance from the University of Michigan.

Jared is located at the company's Detroit, MI office.