Dr. Chris Cato

Chief Population Health Officer
Reach by Airrosti™

Dr. Chris Cato joined Airrosti in 2004 as an Airrosti Certified Provider and today serves as Chief Population Health Officer. In this role, he leads the development of strategic partnerships with health systems, ACOs, health plans, consultants, and other healthcare organizations to advance the delivery of high-value musculoskeletal care.

Dr. Cato also plays a key role in Airrosti's strategic planning and clinical integration efforts, helping develop innovative care models that improve clinical outcomes, enhance the patient experience, and reduce the total cost of musculoskeletal care.
