Kirsten Jaeger
Economist
The Conference Board Europe

Kirsten Jaeger is an economist with The Conference Board Europe in Brussels. She joined the economics team at The Conference Board in 2008 and is working intensively on research projects related to productivity and intangible investment. Jaeger was one of the lead investigators on a recent study on the growth dynamics of the German economy (Productivity, Performance, and Progress: Germany in International Comparative Perspective, 2009) and was actively involved in a project on competitiveness, innovation and intangible investment in Europe sponsored by the European Commission. Jaeger was a pre-doctoral research fellow at the Universitat Pompeu Fabra in Barcelona, Spain, and received her PhD in economics from the University of Tübingen, Germany.
