

Claudia Lee

Research Fellow, Environmental, Social & Governance Center, Europe
The Conference Board

Claudia Lee is a Governance & Sustainability Research Fellow at The Conference Board. Claudia has a Law Degree from the University of Hong Kong and had a previous career in Media & Communications. She is currently a Sustainability Researcher and Writer for multiple digital publications.

Claudia is also an IEMA Associate and a graduate of the Cambridge Institute of Sustainability Leadership's Business Sustainability Management Online Course. Her research interests include: Climate Change Policy, Food Systems & Food Policy, Human Rights in Supply Chains and Sustainable Investing.