Maksymilian Ludzinski

Intern, Governance & Sustainability Center, Europe

Maksymilian Ludzinski is an intern in the Governance & Sustainability Center, Europe at The Conference Board. At The Conference Board, he has extensively researched greenwashing, sustainability, the role of the board in ESG, and human rights and has drafted reports on these topics.

Maksymilian is an economics student at the University of Warwick, UK, post his IB Diploma from Warsaw, Poland. He has presented his undergraduate research work in economics and sustainability at the International Conference of Undergraduate Research (ICUR) 2021 and at the British Conference of Undergraduate Research (BCUR) 2021. He coorganized the Warwick Economics Summit 2021. President of the student society, Rethink Economics Warwick, he is also an economics tutor for the IB Diploma Programme.