

Marco Diaz

SVP, Global Head of Benefits
NewsCorp

Marco Diaz is Senior Vice President, Global Head of Benefits for News Corp. He is responsible for setting the overarching US benefits strategy in conjunction with the various business divisions with oversight to Global benefits delivery as well. Benefits include a broad suite of Health & Welfare plans, retirement plans such as defined contribution, defined benefit and non-qualified plans.

Marco also serves as the Board Chair of the North East Business Group on Health, participates as an employer advisor on the Board of Eden Health and is a member of the Fidelity, Aetna, and Included Health executive client advisory groups.

Prior to News Corp, Marco worked for Thomson Reuters where he oversaw the Americas benefits function.