

Access to Experts

Angel Ysaguirre
Director of Global Community Investing Boeing

Angel Ysaguirre manages Boeing's grantmaking program. He was a program officer at the McCormick Tribune Foundation from 1996 to 1999 and managed the Foundation's grants in homelessness, youth development, and employment programs and co-authored "A Guide to Funding Youth Development." He served as Director of Programs at the Illinois Humanities Council from 1999 to 2005. There he managed the grantmaking program and developed Brown v. Board 50 Years Later: Conversations on Race, Integration, and the Courts, "Einstein's Revolutions," and The Odyssey Project, a series of college-level courses in philosophy, literature, history, art history, and critical thinking and writing for the poor. He serves on the boards of Theatre Communications Group, International Contemporary Ensemble, and chairs the board of Blair Thomas & Co.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org