Steven A. Tyrrell

Co-chair, White Collar Defense and Investigations Group
Weil, Gotshal & Manges

Steven A. Tyrrell serves as co-chair of Weil, Gotshal & Manges' White Collar Defense and Investigations Group. His practice focuses on white collar criminal defense, regulatory enforcement matters, and internal investigations. Before joining Weil, Mr. Tyrrell had a distinguished twenty-year career with the U.S. Department of Justice, including as Chief of DOJ's Fraud Section from 2006 through 2009. In that capacity, he led the investigation, prosecution and coordination of a broad range of sophisticated economic crime matters and enforcement initiatives, including matters involving Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, corporate, securities, commodities and investment fraud, health care fraud, procurement fraud, stimulus and rescue fraud, mortgage fraud, consumer fraud and identity theft. Mr. Tyrrell is a recognized expert and frequent speaker on a host of white collar topics, including FCPA enforcement, securities fraud, corporate charging decisions, use of deferred and non-prosecution agreements, and monitors.
