

Sue Giordano

SVP, Client Experience
Hello Heart

Senior level professional with more than 25 years of experience leading teams and complex projects within the healthcare and wellness arena. She has proven leadership skills in strategic account management, vendor relationships and implementation. Strong abilities working in cross functional environments building and delivering new products and services. As a clinical social worker, Sue is passionate about relationships, and helping drive healthier member populations. Excels in fast-paced entrepreneurial settings.