

Darcy Sementi

Manager, Total Rewards Benefit
State Farm

Darcy Sementi is the Healthcare Benefits Manager at State Farm Insurance Companies where she is responsible for the overall healthcare benefit strategy for both agents and employees, covering more than 160K lives. Darcy oversees a team of analysts responsible for daily health plan operations, healthcare innovation, program optimization, and plan governance. Prior to joining State Farm, Darcy served as Regional Vice President of Sales and Director of Operations for a national health plan and was the Vice President of Talent Acquisition for the nation's largest dental support organization. Darcy has her MBA from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, and Bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois University.