

Nicole Hannes

Senior Benefits Manager
Philips North America

I am an experienced Employee Benefits Professional with a passion for data, wellness and enhancing individuals' lives! I have 20+ years of experience in benefits strategy, consultation, design and administration and management. I've been with Philips nine years as a Senior Benefits Manager on the North America Rewards Team. My responsibility is to manage the medical and well-being benefits portfolio for US employees, seek opportunities to bring innovative programs and solutions to support their overall health, and are highly-valued by our 'People'.
