

Steve Gregoire

Business Development Executive
PoliteMail

Steve Gregoire is a Business Development Executive with PoliteMail. Steve works with communicators to improve employee engagement by assisting in creating well-designed and focused emails along with analyzing the metrics behind those email communications. Steve brings the same creativity and use of data/metrics to the basketball court as a longtime basketball coach. Whether on the court or in the world of corporate communications, Steve's goal is to help others achieve their goal
