

Kristen Wynne

Head of People Success
Skyhigh Security

Kristen is responsible for all aspects of global talent strategy at cloud-native security solutions firm Skyhigh Security. She acts as a culture advocate, defining the organizational structures that work at scale, across six continents, to deliver for the business in areas such as talent management, succession planning, workforce planning and retention.

Throughout her career as a senior HR practitioner, Kristen's counsel has earned her a reputation as a trusted business partner to senior executives. She helps them successfully navigate changes and challenges including M&A, divestitures, large-scale reorganizations and work culture transformations. Kristen is a proactive, innovative and authentic leader who has led HR teams spanning 90+ countries and collaborating across levels, functions, languages and cultures.