

Amy O'Neill

VP & Director, Health and Well-Being Strategy Global Total
Rewards, Benefits
Liberty Mutual

Amy O'Neill is Vice President & Director of Health and Well-Being Strategy at Liberty Mutual Insurance. She oversees the strategy, design and financial management of employee health benefits and well-being programs for nearly 100,000 employees, retirees and their family members. Prior to her career in HR, Amy spent over five years in the company's government affairs group, while pursuing her law degree in the evenings. Her background in health policy and consulting has enabled her to employ a strategic, pragmatic mindset in driving the company's benefits forward to become competitive among leading employers while delivering value to employees and to Liberty.