

Estelle Geisinger

Director, Member Engagement, Europe
The Conference Board

Estelle Geisinger is The Conference Board's Member Engagement Director for Europe and is based in Geneva Switzerland. Estelle has a strong track record of building successful relationships with members across business functions and different regions.

She worked formerly at The World Business Council for Sustainable Development, both in Member Relations and on several industry-specific projects, such as the Cement Sustainability Initiative, the Sustainable Mobility Project and the Tire Industry Project. Estelle holds a BA in English and Spanish Literature (University of Geneva) and a MA in History (University of Geneva).