

Mary Lasky

Director of Benefits
Accolade

Mary Lasky is a passionate advocate for health equity and an employee-centered leader known for infusing compassion into benefit programs. With a wealth of experience, she spearheads the development and execution of comprehensive benefits strategies at Accolade, Inc., designed to attract top talent while prioritizing the well-being of every employee.

In her role as the director of benefits, Mary orchestrates diverse programs covering medical, dental, vision, retirement, mental health, financial well-being, and more, with a goal of fostering health equity. Her commitment to creating a sense of belonging through the programs offered, she earned recognition in 2022 as one of Ragan's Top Women in Wellness and HR Awards.

Based in the picturesque Pacific Northwest with her husband and furry companion, Mary embodies adventure both in and out of the office. With a passion for cycling, she owns four different kinds of bicycles and is always ready to pedal into new horizons and make every adventure count!