

Access to Experts

Nathaniel Edmonds

Assistant Chief of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act Unit, Fraud Section, Criminal Division
United States Department of Justice

Nathaniel Edmonds is responsible for directly supervising half of the FCPA Unit's investigations into transnational bribery and leading certain FCPA investigations. Mr. Edmonds joined the Fraud Section through the Attorney General's Honors Program and has handled a variety of white collar prosecutions including the FCPA-related conviction of BAE Systems plc, the domestic corruption matters associated with lobbyist Jack Abramoff, and various accounting and securities fraud matters. Mr. Edmonds is a graduate of Princeton University and The University of Chicago Law School.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org