

Access to Experts

Terry Shevlin

Terry Shevlin is the Paul Piggot/Paccar Professor of Business Administration at the Michael G. Foster School of Business at the University of Washington. Shevlin's research interests are broad and encompass executive compensation, financial reporting (both its determinants and informativeness to capital markets participants), and the role of taxes in business decisions. He has numerous publications and has presented his research at numerous universities. Shevlin earned his Ph.D. from the Graduate School of Business at Stanford University.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Terry Shevlin

Director Notes

- The Role of CFOs in Material Accounting Manipulations
04 May, 2011