

Brian Bloom

Vice President, Global Benefits & Mobility Operations
Korn Ferry

Vice President of Global Benefits & Mobility Operations, Korn Ferry

Brian Bloom is the Vice President of Global Benefits & Mobility Operations for Korn Ferry's Human Resource department located in Los Angeles, CA, where he leads the global benefits and mobility teams. In this role, Brian is responsible for the global health, welfare, and retirement benefits, including strategy and administration. He also manages the global employee stock purchase program (ESPP) and deferred compensation programs along with the safety and well-being committee. Prior to joining Korn Ferry, Brian worked for a professional services firm as Vice President, and he was a consultant for the health and benefits practice working with both private and public sector clients in the range of 500 to 150,000 lives. Brian has a B.A. in Political Science from Colorado State University.