

Access to Experts

Lowell T McLaughlin
State and Local Tax Manager
The Dow Chemical Company

Based in Midland, Michigan, Lowell McLaughlin is responsible for annual property and sales & use tax payments, budgeting and planning, implementing long-term strategies involving government incentives and tax abatements and engagement in State and Local legislative matters that require advocacy in the area of state and local taxation. He is also responsible for managing Dow's unclaimed property compliance function and management of audits.

He has been with Dow 10 years, starting as a Property Tax Specialist. Prior to his Dow career, he worked in local government as a department head in the functional areas of taxation and zoning/planning and a consultant in the functional area of property taxation.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org