

Kristin Chenevert

Health and Wellness Manager
Citizen's

Kristin Chenevert is the Health and Wellness Manager at Citizens. Kristin joined the Citizens Benefits team in September 2018. In this role, Kristin oversees the delivery of the bank's health & welfare benefit offerings with a strong focus on delivering innovative and holistic wellness solutions to the bank's 18,000+ colleagues. Over the past five years, wellbeing strategy has extended deep into the Citizens culture, with the goal of supporting their diverse workforce both personally and professionally, helping to support each colleague's unique journey.

Prior to joining Citizens, Kristin spent 10 years at Ocean Spray Cranberries, where she merged her expertise in total wellbeing and solid understanding of employee benefits into a comprehensive employee wellness program.

Kristin's passion for wellness is also evident in her personal life as she can often be found going for a run, practicing Yoga, hiking with her family, and coaching her youngest son's travel soccer team.
