

Veronica Knuth

Chief People Officer
Quantum Health

Veronica Knuth believes an employee-centered environment is at the heart of building and retaining an exceptional team of professionals.

A strategic leader with decades of experience, Knuth is passionate about connecting people with an organization that inspires them. At Quantum Health, she enjoys creating a team that is motivated by a shared purpose: navigating members through their very personal healthcare journeys — no matter how simple or complex they may be. She believes employees should feel they are an integral part of Quantum Health’s vision and mission.

Knuth specializes in creating a culture that is inclusive and puts its employees first. This equips and empowers them to be their best — both personally and professionally. Knuth fosters transparency and open communication to ensure dynamic and productive dialogue and interactions.

Prior to joining Quantum Health, Knuth led highly successful teams as vice president of human resources at several diverse companies, including CoverMyMeds, Victoria’s Secret and La Senza. She enjoys extending meaningful leadership relationships in the community, where she is involved with organizations focused on boosting equity and capability.
