

Dina Bracigliano O'Donnell

Dina O'Donnell has been a part of the Council department at The Conference Board for many years. As Program Director, she manages networks of senior executives around the world and has organized and facilitated meetings for Councils focusing on a variety of disciplines, including Competitive Analysis, Information Research and Management, Communications, and Marketing.

She also oversees the launch of new Councils in these areas, and is responsible for maintaining and increasing membership for the groups she manages. Dina's focus on all aspects of the Council member experience, including communication, engagement, and special membership initiatives, led to her receiving The Conference Board's "Customer Service Excellence award" in 2003 and the Council's Department "Membership Achievement award" in 2007.
