

William Gilet

Partner
PwC

Bill is a Partner within PwC's Management Consulting Practice, with over 25 years of combined industry, assurance and consulting experience. Bill is PwC's Global Shared Services & Outsourcing Advisory Leader, where he advises clients on optimizing their service delivery models. Bill has advised many of PwC's multi-national strategic clients with complex transactions and transformations, to improve performance and structure their organizations for growth.