

Barbara Huss-Kaniewska

Head of the Global Business Services Organization (BSO)
CBRE Inc.

Basia Huss-Kaniewska is a Senior Vice President with CBRE Inc. Global BSO Leader. Basia joined CBRE in 2008 and has held several leadership roles. She was instrumental in building and managing the EMEA Business Services Center, leading platform standardization and automation, transforming our operations, and partnering with stakeholders to support CBRE business strategy. Basia came to CBRE from JLL, where she set up and led a centralized Client Accounting team, servicing European and global clients. Before JLL, she was with DuPont where she worked in Accounting and Internal Audit. Basia was named the Global BSO Leader in July of 2021 and has since been leading the transformation of the BSO. She has transformed its structure into a truly global one and introduced a strategy that brought the BSO on a journey to become a competitive advantage for CBRE.
