

Access to Experts

Christine Petrovits

Christine Petrovits is an assistant professor of accountancy at The George Washington University School of Business. Previously, she was an assistant professor of accounting and Paduano Faculty Fellow in Business Ethics at the NYU Stern School of Business. Her research focuses on corporate social responsibility and financial reporting in both corporate and not-for-profit organizations and has been published in top academic journals, such as the Journal of Accounting and Economics, Strategic Management Journal, and The Accounting Review. Professor Petrovits earned her PhD from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Christine Petrovits

Director Notes

- Making the Business Case for Corporate Philanthropy
01 August, 2011