

Mark Williams

VP Learning & Consulting

WMFDP | FDP Global | Full Partner Leadership

Mark, MA, Organizational Psychology, partnered with WMFDP | FDP Global (now also: Full Partner Leadership) in 2018, and is known for his unique ability to integrate conceptual frameworks, research and diagnostics with web-based tools and multimedia in his facilitation work with organizations, teams and small groups. He is the founder and co-creator of Inclusion Insights, the cutting-edge digital learning platform that combines expert guidance, just-in-time tools, and networking for organizations. He has also conducted over 500 diversity training presentations for a wide variety of corporate and governmental clients . Mark is a highly regarded thought leader, consultant, coach, public speaker and author of five books, including the best-selling book entitled “The 10 Lenses, Your Guide to Living and Working in a Multicultural World.” He has conducted extensive research in the field of identity and diversity with leading firms such as Gallup, Zogby, Harris and Survey USA.