

Ben Miller

Chief Revenue Officer (CRO)
Premise Health

Ben Miller services as Chief Revenue Officer (CRO) for Premise Health and leads sales and business development for the organization. In this position, he is responsible for new logo growth, sales strategies, and sales operations and CRM functions. Ben is charged with strategically positioning the Premise brand to solidify our market leading position and with forming key partnerships in our target markets, including Taft-Hartley and health plans. With more than 20 years of payer and broker experience, Ben has a strong focus on revenue growth and expertise in channel and sales strategy.

Prior to joining Premise, Ben served as vice president of marketing, sales and business development for Kaiser Permanente. In this role he was responsible for commercial growth with a focus on employer, national accounts, public sector, and Medicaid and Medicare programs. Ben spent more than fifteen years in various sales leadership positions at Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield including regional vice president.

A graduate of the University of Cincinnati, Ben holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in humanities and has attended Harvard University's Executive Leadership Program. He is the current president and board chair for the Denver chapter of the American Heart Association and serves as board member for the Jefferson County School Board Foundation and Denver Chamber of Commerce's Economic Development Council.
