Holly H. Moyer

Assistant Human Resources Director
City of Fort Worth

Holly Moyer is an Assistant Human Resources Director with the City of Fort Worth. She is responsible for benefits, wellness, HR business partners, and talent acquisition. In her current role, she oversees benefits for general and police employees as well as pre-65 retiree self-insured healthcare funds, equaling approximately $115-120 million dollars annually. Her previous public sector roles included the Benefits & Wellness Program Administrator for the City of Georgetown and Compensation Manager for the City of Austin. Her private sector experience included medical underwriting for a third-party administration carrier. Her combined public and private sector experience span 20+ years.