Kris Rutch
Executive Consultant
Development Dimensions International (DDI)

Kris is an Executive Consultant at DDI where he specializes in the assessment, development, and coaching of senior leaders. Prior to joining DDI in 2008, Kris had compiled over 20 years of diverse business experience across a myriad of business disciplines. At Bayer Corporation, he held several executive positions including Vice President of Logistics, Vice President of Supply Chain Management, Vice President of Customer Service, and Business Controller. He also spent eight years at Deloitte & Touche where he provided a wide range of accounting, auditing, and consulting services to clients around the world. Under his leadership, Kris' teams have reaped millions of dollars of cost savings, made quantum changes in internal efficiency, built and refined numerous departments, crafted and implemented key business strategies, and significantly expanded organizational capabilities. In addition to his work with DDI clients, Kris is an active writer as well as a featured speaker at industry conferences and events.
