

Access to Experts

Richard Leblanc

Director, Masters of Financial Accountability Program; Associate Professor, Law, Governance and Ethics
York University

Richard Leblanc is an associate professor of Law, Corporate Governance & Ethics at York University. His research expertise is in corporate governance, specifically, the effectiveness of boards of directors, and the recruitment, education and assessment of individual directors, including their skills, competencies and behaviors. Governmental, regulatory, industry and shareholder associations have drawn on Professor Leblanc's expertise and work. Dr. Leblanc has served as an external advisor to boards that have won national awards and peer endorsement from institutional shareholders for their corporate governance practices. He has been published in both academic and practitioner journals. He can be reached at rleblanc@yorku.ca.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Richard Leblanc

Director Notes

- Separation of Chair & CEO Roles
10 August, 2011