

Raquel Weintraub

Chief Operating Officer
CADENA

Raquel has been a part of CADENA since 2014, where she has participated in, led, and created various educational programs, operations, and humanitarian interventions. She currently serves as the Chief Operating Officer of CADENA at an international level. She completed a Master's degree in Leadership in Humanitarian Action and studied Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development at Universidad Anáhuac México. In addition to holding multiple diplomas in Humanitarian Action, Raquel Weintraub has been involved in social and humanitarian projects for over 10 years. She has experience as a consultant in social responsibility, sustainability, humanitarian work, and strategic planning in both the private and third sectors. She is also experienced in other areas such as strategic communication, biblical studies, and first aid. Raquel is recognized for her passion, social responsibility, and empathy.