

Stephanie Riedel

Sr. Manager, AMER Benefits
Autodesk

Stephanie Riedel is a California native and still calls the beautiful San Francisco Bay Area home. Since October 2021, she has been an integral part of the Autodesk team, leading Benefits for the AMER region. Stephanie is passionate about creating programs and benefits that truly support and delight employees at every stage of their life journey. Prior to Autodesk, Stephanie brought her expertise to roles at ServiceNow, Electronic Arts, Intuitive Surgical, DLA Piper U.S. LLP, and others. To unwind and recharge, Stephanie and her husband love scenic road trips and enjoy wine tasting adventures in the picturesque regions of Napa and Sonoma.
