Sarah Keh

Vice President, Inclusive Solutions
Prudential Financial

Sarah S. Keh is Vice President of Inclusive Solutions at Prudential Financial and Vice President and Secretary of The Prudential Foundation, where she leads the company's strategic philanthropy, community investments and employee engagement efforts to advance inclusive economic growth and expand pathways to financial security, wealth creation and shared ownership. She oversees initiatives that strengthen communities, enhance economic mobility, support disaster response and recovery, and mobilize employees to create both business and social impact. Sarah serves on the boards of the New Jersey Devils Youth Foundation and the Newark City Parks Foundation, the advisory boards of Nomi Network and Corporate Impact Lab, and the Investment Committee of PGIM Real Estate U.S. Impact Value Partners Fund.