Glenn A. Eisenberg, 49, is executive vice president, finance and administration of The Timken Company, a diversified industrial manufacturer of innovative materials, products and services providing friction management and power transmission solutions for any kind of mechanical application.

He was appointed to the Alpha Natural Resources board of directors in 2005 and has served as chairman of its audit committee and nominating and corporate governance committee since that time.

Mr. Eisenberg has also served as a director and chairman of the audit committee of Family Dollar Stores, Inc., owners and operators of discount stores, since November 2002 and January 2003, respectively.

Prior to joining The Timken Company in 2002, Mr. Eisenberg served as president and chief operating officer of United Dominion Industries, a manufacturer of proprietary engineered products, from 1999 to 2001, and as the president — test instrumentation segment and executive vice president for United Dominion Industries from 1998 to 1999.

Through his employment with The Timken Company, a publicly traded, multi-billion dollar company, and his service in other senior executive capacities, Mr. Eisenberg has developed expertise in risk management, financial reporting and accounting, compensation matters, government relations, global/M&A transactions, and environmental, health, and safety. He is also one of our “audit committee financial experts.”
