

Sally Krick

Director of Benefits
Santander

Sally Krick is the Director of Benefits at Santander where she has the opportunity to support and promote the health and well-being of employees and their families each day. She has been with Santander for 19 years, beginning her career in a branch and moving into HR within both the Payroll and Benefits teams over the past 16 years. Over the past 8 years as part of the Benefits team, Sally has been committed to building a comprehensive, affordable benefits package that provides programs to help meet employees' needs at each stage of their lives and meets the unique needs of them and their families. Sally is enthusiastic about educating employees about Santander's benefits and sharing this important part of the company's commitment to its great talent. She lives in Pennsylvania with her husband and two children and holds a BA in Communications and a minor in Business from Pennsylvania State University.